

HAVEN DISTRIBUTION

Books to Prisoners

"Big thanks from me & the lads who I know pass the courses with the help you give them - thank you."
Mr I, HMP Sudbury,
Oct 2007

"A French proverb said: Do not give a fish to your friend but teach him how to fish. This is what Haven is exactly doing."
Haven beneficiary,
August 2007

Haven Distribution believes in the transformational power of education. We believe that prisoners, given a positive educational environment and the tools for change, can work toward their own self-development, assisting in their resettlement upon release.

Since 1996, we have been providing UK prisoners with the tools for this educational transformation – books; from fiction for personal reading to text books and dictionaries to assist learning.

We can help you

If you are a prisoner attending an educational course such as NVQ, Open University, Skills for Life, etc...Haven may be able to purchase books for your course to a maximum of £20 per person, per calendar year. We encourage you to leave the books in the prison library once the course is finished so that other prisoners can use them.

Please contact us for an application form.

You can help us

We are a small independent charity, funded by the generous financial donations of individuals and grant-giving Trusts, along with book donations from a wide range of small publishers. No books are purchased without a specific request from a prisoner, so you can be sure that your money is being spent where it is needed. Contact us to make a donation and find out other ways you can help.
